

Major Arcana

1. Overture (The World Theme - instrumental)

2. The Fool

I am new to the world the world is new, new to me I'm standing at the start And though I've just left the end

I am breaking the rules
I walk the borders of the world It's such a drag to conform to play it straight in the herd

I am everywhere to be seen
I am every man so keen looking for adventure bright
I dream of sorcery at night

I've been looking for love the love of my long, long lost soul cause we've been parted so long my rose has withered, turned to dust

I am everywhere to be seen
I am every man so keen
looking for adventure bright

3. The Magician

Magic! Magic!
Feel the power rise Flower! Flower!
Flowers, red and white

Magic! Magic!
Feeling hot tonight
Power! Power!
Feel the God of light

Fire! Fire!
Fire walk with me Lighting! Lightning!
Strike at my command

4. The High Priestess

Daughter of the moon wrapped in your cocoon Sorceress of life dreaming in a shell

Visions come to life in the silent night fly eternal dream on my inner screen

Listen patiently to your subconsciousness Secrets will be revealed for your inner eyes Anima comes to life in a spark of light Breezes of clarity slips through your mind

5. The Empress

Mother of all mankind mother of all creatures how can I unite with you how can I praise your features

Fertility, maternity, initiative, glowing exuberance
Stability, security and charity, what mighty brilliance

Mother of all nature goddess of peace, love and joy
how can I unite with you how can I praise your name out loud

Fertility, maternity, initiative, glowing exuberance
Stability, security and charity what mighty brilliance

6. The Emperor

Waste land, lies before me rage, rule, what once was yours is mine now War is an art form, a sacred way of living praise be those who fell on the battlefield with glory I'll lead your way to the victory and glory
one day you'll sit back and they'll listen to your story fight, gain, show no mercy fear, pain, don't let the pain disturb you There must be no doubt in your heart and mind and you must fight with no remorse and no affiliation

I'll lead your way to the victory and glory
one day you'll sit back and they'll listen to your story

I'll lead your way to the victory and glory
one day you'll sit back and they'll listen to your story Listen to your story, talk about the glory Listen to your story and having a good laugh and a joke

7. The Hierophant (Instrumental)

8. The Lovers

Eternal love eternal light
I share with you my love the light of my life

The battle inside my soul,
when will it ever come to rest
how can the harmony prevail
with your shimmering flesh

The shining sun the air I breathe what would it be without you here by my side

The battle inside my soul,
when will it ever come to rest
how can the harmony prevail

9. The Chariot

Chariot, oh drive me to victory Chariot, don't drive me to failure Chariot, oh carry me far away Chariot, away from defeat and despair

Chariot, oh drive me the way back home Chariot, the peace of my very own Chariot, the vehicle of my longing soul Chariot, oh carry me to see my goal

10. Strength

Strength, the inner balance Strength, my self-control Strength, opposites attracts Strength, the mighty conquest

Strength, the liberation Strength, the mighty passion Strength, victory of love Strength, my resolution

11. The Hermit

Sitting in the sunshine afraid of exposure sitting in my loneliness afraid of the closure

Searching for the inner light afraid of the darkness searching for the inner strength hoping for some guidance

Walking in the wilderness
with the torch in my hand
lighting up the path
where angels fear to tread

Glancing up through the rain
seeking shelter in the night
will the omens come to show
will it be a lovely sight

Contemplating loneliness enjoying my company lending all a helping hand revealing all the secrets

Walking in the wilderness
lighting up the path
where angels fear to tread

will it be a dreadful sight

Walking in the wilderness
lighting up the path
where angels fear to tread

will it be a lovely sight

12. Wheel of Fortune

Turning eternal, turning eternal Wheel of fortune, turning eternal

Baboon, Typhon,
ROTA, TARO, JHWH,
Angel, Lion, Eagle and Bull make the Wheel of Fortune spin around

13. Justice

Sitting on her throne she reigns you and me and all below Sword is in her hand commands all the creatures to obey

Can we ever learn to live
in peace and harmony
Can we ever see the beauty
in our fellow man

Will we ever learn the lesson
she has for us to learn
Will we ever see the light
she has for us to see

Voice of consciousness so clear speak to me or shout it loud Balance out the bad ideas prejudice must be thrown out

Can we ever learn to live
in peace and harmony
Can we ever see the beauty

she has for us to learn
Will we ever see the light

Scale is in her hand to weigh good and evil of the world Justice will prevail some day all that we can do is pray

Can we ever learn to live
in peace and harmony
Can we ever see the beauty

she has for us to learn
Will we ever see the light
she has for us to see

14. The Hanged Man

Hanging down upside down Changes come past begone

Feeling so good and I knew that I would with the power unleashed I have found new beliefs

Sacrifice the old advice for ecstasy, a new destiny Take the plunge and do the lunge well, down I go into the abyss

15. Death
(Instrumental)

16. Temperance

Angel of temperance with the golden halo above your head waters of consciousness will flow from silver to golden cup

Angel of mercy mind with the square and triangle on your chest let the waters flow like life, like the stream below your iris feet

Come balance my life here in this wilderness
help choosing my way through this maze of thoughts,
of ones and noughts

Come harmonize the opposite sides of me
help balance my life in this maze of ways,
this maze of stays

help choosing my way through this maze of thoughts,
of ones and noughts

Come harmonize the opposite sides of me
help balance my life in this maze of ways,
this maze of stays

17. The Devil

Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in, because he's such a cruel and wicked fellow

Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in, because he's such a cruel and wicked fellow

Shackled to his alter
like a cow with a halter
The lovers gaze at each other
so why would they bother

Shackled with desire dependant on each other
The lovers must part their ways
with the devil and each other

Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, because he's such a cruel and wicked fellow

Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in oh, don't let the Devil in,
Don't let the Devil in, because he's such a cruel and wicked fellow

like a cow with a halter
The lovers gaze at each other

with the devil and each other

18. The Tower

Tower, tower will be struck down
power, power been stripped away
People, people will be cast out people, people will scream and shout

Lightning, lightning will illuminate thunder, thunder will prove the fate Tower, tower will be struck down and
people, people will be cast out

People who live by the book and the dogmas are on the hook They are so frozen and will not change so fear and darkness prove their shame

People who live like the fools they are forced to live by the rules They are so rigid and will not change so God's the only to stop their game

Tower, tower will be struck down
power, power been stripped away
People, people will be cast out

people, people will be cast out

19. The Star (Instrumental)

20. The Moon

Moon above my head
you light the path of the wilderness Moon above my head
the voice of my unconsciousness

Moon above my head
you reflect the light of creation Moon above my head
you shine a light on my emotions

Deception lurking, delusion working,
bad influence and... scandals coming 'round infusing bad ideas, the psychic power's cheating hidden dangers lurking, irresponsibility

Deception lurking, delusion working,
bad influence and... scandals coming 'round
hidden dangers lurking, irresponsibility

21. The Sun

Riding white horse in the sunshine happy freedom, bold and sanguine,

Sunflower, sun shower
let the cosmic rain come pouring down
Sunflower, sun shower
let devotion lead you to the crown

Sunshine, reggae, freedom, dancing power unleashed, fancy dreaming

life is easy when the sun is up
Sunflower, sun shower
imagination leading to the top

Sunshine, sitting in the sunshine
I feel the rays, they warm me to the bones Sunshine, such a blinding sunshine
I feel the rays, they're lightning up my tones

Sunflower, sun shower
let the cosmic rain come pouring down
Sunflower, sun shower
let devotion lead you to the crown

Sunflower, sun shower
life is easy when the sun is up
Sunflower, sun shower
imagination leading to the top

22. Judgement

Rise! Rise! Rise! Rise!
Rise! Rise!
Rise from the eternal grave

Rise! Rise! Rise! Rise!
Rise! Rise!
Rise, the trumpets sounding loud

Rise! Rise! Rise! Rise!
Rise! Rise!
Rise from the eternal grave

Rise! Rise! Rise! Rise!
Rise! Rise!
Rise, the trumpets sounding loud

Free at last, we've purified our souls free at last, we've renewed our goals Free at last, we've enlarged our range free at last, our subconscious mind has changed

23. The World

In the world, in a twirl we will live, we will reach our goal the unity of our souls the unity of the poles

Power and glory, fire and might Saturn is ruling, the cosmic night how great is your power, how strong is your hand the circle is closed and the end is at hand

Angel and Lion, Eagle and Bull protects the world when the cup is full The egg is the womb, the womb is the world the world is awaiting the entry of the fool

In a dance, in a stance in a glance, we will see the fool behind the veil of the universe behind the chaos of the world

In the world, we will live we will die, in a glimpse we see the light of the eternal mind oh shall we remain forever blind?

24. Outro (instrumental)
