

A normal life

Living in the desert sand they tell me we got a plan sunshine's burning in my eyes looking for a man in disguise

I long to lead a normal life having kids and car and wife how come it feels so awkward now leave the scene and take a bow

Something's wrong, it's in my mind why can't I just get it right they said we can help you out you just have to keep on the fight

I long to lead a normal life

Living in the local woods I'm searching for peace of mind nighttime is alright for hunt looking for someone of my kind

I long to lead a normal life
