

Apparition

Flying in the night
walking in the air
I have lost the fight
but it was not fair

I'm an apparition
an image in your mind
it is all superstition
the worlds you can't find

Wailing in the night
running up the stairs
blinded by the light
you appear so scared

Help me, help me out screaming, scream and shout avenge me, avenge me now howling, howl and haunt floating in the sea

watery and bleak
opening up my eyes
I'm just staring out
