

Bad Habit

The shadows of the moonlight haunted by the past
a heart trapped in illusions chasing what won't last

You're a bad habit
a ghost in the night
whispers in the wind
echoes in the dark

I'm through with tears and silence voices calling out
a prisoner of nostalgia glancing in the rain

You're a bad habit
a ghost in the night
echoes in the dark

They say time will heal but the clock's standing still a prison of emotions just can't break the will.

You're a bad habit
yes, that's what you are
such a bad habit
now you're gone too far

I'm tracing the scars
embedded in the night
I'm lost in a reverie
so blinded by light.

You're a bad habit
yes, that's what you are
such a bad habit
now you're gone too far

A story of obsession
tales of love gone wrong, a web of pure memories
singing same old song

You're a bad habit
a ghost in the night
echoes in the dark
