

Burn the darkness

(Ten of Swords)

I'm lying flat on the floor my thoughts are keeping me down I can't reach out to the door my head is spinning around

The darkness surrounds me complete I need some light to guide my way because I, I can't fucking see to get right through to my day

Burn the darkness
Let the sun come shining through
burn the darkness
make the clouds evaporate

Confession, I need you tonight I'll have to get through to you depression, I'll turn to the light so I can see what to do

Burn the darkness
Let the sun come shining through
burn the darkness
make the clouds evaporate

Burn the darkness
Let the sun come shining through
burn the darkness
