a. Behind the lines

You hear the lies you cannot believe you close your eyes you sleep on your toes

You're feeling sad you feel so ashamed you're feeling bad you call out rude names

behind the lines
we don't want it out
we're lurking about
behind the lines
please don't scream and shout
we keep it dark

You're feeling high you know you're so right why can't they see the rays of the light

You see the sun you search for the truth what's going on you're losing your youth

behind the lines
we don't want it out
behind the lines
please don't scream and shout
we keep it dark

b. In the trench

I bow my head and I watch from behind you might be dead but we sure won't go blind

We live in the trench
so watch out for snipers
we sit on a bench
so watch out for vipers

I watch in shame but I don't really care you do the same how can we be aware

c. Truce 1 (instrumental)

d. The enemy within

Look in the mirror and watch the enemy within
look all around you and feel

We wait so many years to know how grumpy feels you know just save your tears and turn round on your heels

I tried so many times to make love just to you I've read so many lines It all ends in a goo

e. Hostage

Sitting by my window and watch the world go by I can never go out I'm a hostage of my device

Fight, fight, I wanna break out
I don't wanna be a hostage no more Fight, fight, I wanna be free somehow I just feel afraid and sore

Shining like a star now you're paralyzing me you look near but yet so far I'm a hostage, I don't think twice

Fight, fight, I wanna break out

f. Truce 2 (instrumental)

g. Civil war

Pictures of yesterday fade so quickly away Like the passengers on a train we turn our heads and look away

Suddenly I remember
we're at the civil war
It is late september and I don't know what we're heading for Luck is fading quickly it could be any day Like the viewers on a bridge we watch the waters flow away

Suddenly I remember

Light is fading quickly and darkness rules the night Like the prisoners in a cell we close our eyes and look inside

Suddenly I remember

h. All is lost

All is lost
all is gone
all we've been fighting for vanished through the years

We let go of the feeling
we let go of the sorrow
we just stare at the ceiling
there is no tomorrow

all we've been hoping for vanished through the tears

i. Peace (instrumental)

j. Behind the lines (reprise)

You dry your eyes stare in disbelief look at the sky
feel eternal grief

We walk away
there's nothing to say why should we stay the war was a fake
