

Crystal Ball

Look into the crystal ball what do I see?
much confusion, desillusion, singing in a glee fingers coming out of the blue, pointing at me haven't got the faintest clue, what they want from me

Crystal ball, oh crystal ball
won't you show me your sight
Crystal ball, oh crystal ball
I believe in your inner light

Like a blind eye staring into the hazy void Lies a world behind a grey and gauzy veil Hiding secrets of a sky, you'll never know Hiding paths of a future that will never show

won't you show me your sight
Crystal ball, oh crystal ball
I believe in your inner light

Happiness will be the goal, seek it night and day tranquility is a state long overdue Loneliness will be our fate, silence will prevail
come and sit beside me now, don't hesitate

Crystal ball, oh crystal ball
won't you show me your sight
Crystal ball, oh crystal ball
I believe in your inner light

won't you show me your sight
Crystal ball, oh crystal ball
I believe in your inner light
