

Dancefloor

You try to fit in you're wearing a mask
you're keeping it up you're doing the task

you're losing your smile you're getting a grin
you don't wanna play you know where they've been

Rearing your ugly head
that's what they said
losing your temper
they wish you dead

Dance with your cloven foot
you know you should
joining the dance floor
it feels so good

You're watching the sun
it moves down so slow
you feel on the run
the moon starts to glow

You're living at night and worship the light
you don't wanna fight
just watching the sight

Rearing your ugly head
losing your temper

They all want to help
they all want to heal
you got to repent
you know how it feels

You cry in the dark
just leave me alone
you don't want their help they sit on a throne

Just follow the rhythm
just follow the light
you are the lighthouse
you're shining so bright

You're in the crowd now they all stop and stare you slide on the floor now and reach for the door
