

Don't you worry
(Prince of Wands)

The mountain's rising in the distant now oh where is my wand to lead my way I'm seeking strength so I can carry on my journey lies ahead of me

Don't you worry 'bout a thing
See the future's coming bright don't you want to dance and sing
come and step into the light

I'm not afraid of what I'll turn into a freak or fool or a shining star my courage comes from being who I am I'm not afraid to be someone

Don't you worry 'bout a thing
come and step into the light

I'm not afraid of what they'll think of me ambitions will make me feel alright so come on let's go find the holy grail together we will make it right

Don't you worry 'bout a thing
don't you want to dance and sing
come and step into the light
