

Dreaming In The Darkness

(All I Want Is You)

holding hands under water staring at the wall waiting for a call what sorcery lies behind this looking for a clue searching for a sign
'cause you're always there in my awkward mind
all I want is you

Dreaming in the sunshine holding hands in the air gone is all despair gone are all my cares what magic's lying behind this look into my eyes
I will do the same
and my mind is to blame
all I want is you

I'm down on my knees for you begging oh please won't you take me into your arms again

take me into your arms don't ever let me slip away

Dreaming under pressure clutching hands like in fever staring at the lid it's a major skid the line between hell and heaven waiting for the doom deep into the gloom
in my twisted mind
all I want is you

I want you more and more
all I want is you
you - I want you all the time
all I want is you
you - I want you more and more
all I want is you
all I want is you
