

Faces in the Window

I'm walking on the sidewalk the rain is pouring down my footsteps are washed away leaving nothing behind

I'm looking at the faces in the window their eyes will follow me wherever I may go I'm looking at the faces in the window
their misty eyes are drowning in the clouds

We said goodbye long time ago the light was fading out I miss you more than you could know you are just a face in the crowd

I'm looking at the faces in the window
their eyes will follow me wherever I may go
I'm looking at the faces in the window
their misty eyes are drowning in the clouds

Will we ever meet again repeat the stories untold you'll sit behind the cloudy window looking down at this poor soul

I'm looking at the faces in the window
their eyes will follow me wherever I may go
I'm looking at the faces in the window
their misty eyes are drowning in the clouds
