

Falling Out

I'm lying on my bed looking at the ceiling the noise outside my room activate my feelings

I know I'm falling out
I live in deepest doubt
I'm floating in the air
on a pillow of despair

I try to get away
I don't know where it is
I know I'll have to stay It's some kinda show bizz

I know I'm falling out
I live in deepest doubt
I'm floating in the air
on a pillow of despair

I'm falling out again
there's nothing more to gain
I'm falling out again
I'll scream and shout it out

I'm falling out again
silently all the way
I'm falling out again
floating among the stars

I am reaching a shore of light and of dreams I'll walk mile after mile
I ain't getting nowhere

I know I'm falling out
I live in deepest doubt
I'm floating in the air

I live in deepest doubt
I'm floating in the air
on a pillow of despair
