

Golden Cage

I'm sitting on my throne
I'm sitting all alone
I wish I was at home
and not inside this golden cage

I'm sending love to you It's all that I can do I hope it's getting through the boarders of this golden cage

I'll keep on sending love and pray to the sky above It'll reach you in your dreams
so far outside this golden cage

I'll lay me down to rest and hope it's for the best I dream I'm close to you
and not inside this golden cage

So will you think of me? when stars are up to see the moon is shining bright
so far outside this golden cage

No silver nor no gold redeems a life on hold my wings are far from strong to leave behind this golden cage
