

Heavy Christmas

Roasted pork and red cabbage
sugar roasted
potatoes

Roasted duck and sauerkraut and
crispy chips,
lumpy gravy

Heavy Christmas
we eat all day
heavy Christmas
we drink all night

Sugar canes and short breads and marzipan pigs
I'm drooling

Liquorice and peppermint and quality street
I'm craving

Heavy Christmas
we eat all day
heavy Christmas
we drink all night

The light in your eyes are shining like the stars the Christmas is magic the world's not so tragic

We celebrate Christmas forget all the darkness the light is returning the sunshine is burning

Heavy Christmas
we eat all day
heavy Christmas
we drink all night

Whiskey sour and dry champagne
heavy schnaps
merry go round

Blackened ale and brown rum and
coca cola
you mix it

Heavy Christmas
we eat all day
heavy Christmas

Heavy Christmas
we dance around
heavy Christmas
we fall to ground

Merry Christmas, everyone I hope you'll have your fun and get the things you want be good to your fellow man

Don't drink too much and don't eat too much oh, what the heck
you just have your fun

Merry Christmas
