

It doesn't work anymore

Feeling sad and lonely in my comfort zone tears of blood is running feeding sorrows monster

It doesn't work anymore
the comfort's gone for sure
I can't hide in my tears
I gotta face my fears

Standing on your doorstep not on your floor yet sweeping away the dust sweeping away the trust

It doesn't work anymore
the comfort's gone for sure
I can't hide in my tears
I gotta face my fears

I'm driving away
got nothing to say I wish I could stay someday or someday

Exposed in the light from cars in the night
keep driving away
I wish I could stay

Nothing keeps me sane now no one take the blame now strangers on a train go rushing in the night flow

It doesn't work anymore

It doesn't work anymore
