

Isolation

I play out to see where we are you notice, but you don't respond I'm looking for clues and when to stop are we playing in the same game

I lie to you by keeping my mouth shut
I don't want you to know how I feel
I follow your eyes, I try to decode them
I'm so confused, I don't know what is real

The trust is long gone to other skies
I lie no matter what I do I'm trapped in a battle in my head
I'm stuck in my isolation

I lie to you by keeping my mouth shut
I don't want you to know how I feel
I follow your eyes, I try to decode them
I'm so confused, I don't know what is real

I keep living these situations the battle in my head rages on I keep wanting to show you out
I need to stop this wicked game

Isolation in my head isolation in my bed isolation in my mind isolation I think I'm blind

I lie to you by keeping my mouth shut
I don't want you to know how I feel
I follow your eyes, I try to decode them
I'm so confused, I don't know what is real repeat chorus
