

Keep smiling
(Two of Pentacles)

My ship is braving the waves up and down it goes now we are parting our ways are we friends or foes

Keep looking
keep searching
keep wanting
you will find it someday

I keep my feet right on the ground
I keep my ears wide open now
I strike the balance of my mind
I let the past go right behind

My goal lies in the motion from within it comes no superficial notion from the shining ones

I travel beyond the skies further out it goes I'm gazing beyond the lies sleeping on my toes

I keep my feet right on the ground
I keep my ears wide open now
I strike the balance of my mind
I let the past go right behind

I keep my feet right on the ground
I keep my ears wide open now
I strike the balance of my mind
I let the past go right behind

Keep smiling
keep joking
keep laughing
though you heart is breaking

Keep smiling
keep joking
keep laughing
though you heart is breaking

Keep dancing
keep swaying
keep rolling
you will get your steps right

Keep dancing
keep swaying
keep rolling
you will get your steps right

Keep dreaming
keep wondering
keep trying
you will get it someday

Keep dreaming
keep trying

keep wanting
