a) Living on the edge

Walking in the dark I'm lurking like a shark driving with no brake your life is at stake

Skating on the ice you know I'm thinking twice bearing all the sins filling all my bins

Living on the edge
trying to escape
tread softly my dear
things aren't always clear

Basking in the sun
my mind is on the run
you left me behind
now I'm running blind

things aren't always clear

b) Lovers Lane

I'm not suppose to be here but I just can't keep away it just couldn't be more clear but I love to watch 'em play

I don't play the lovers game walking down the lovers lane and though the dream is far off gone
It still keeps me hanging on

I'm just a lonely rider and dreams are coming so close I'm just a holy diver so close to an overdose

It still keeps me hanging on

c) Life in the balance

Life in the balance dancing on the edge hope there's a fair chance to be fully fledged

hanging by a thread just like a silly mobile blowing in the wind

beauty lies ahead
or will it be torn to shreds

d) A mobile in the wind (instrumental)

e) Walking in the twilight

How can I trust the future where can I go see the light when there is found no cure we got to keep on the fight

Smiling in the daylight singing like a lark
walking in the twilight
dabbling with the dark

I'm just a part time zombie I can only dance at night and still I hope you'd come by to shed your eternal light

f) A face in the crowd

You're just a face in the crowd I once loved you, but now I'm just a tree in the wood I couldn't reach you if I would Like the grains of sand on the beach

we have no goal nor no plan we have no other place to go or to stay
we are soon to be washed away

you'd ignore me, no doubt I will walk away in shame cause I lost that stupid game

g) Diversion

Diversion - try not to think diversion - try not to feel diversion - try not to sink diversion - trying to heal diversion - there's more to gain diversion - don't mind the pain diversion - pushing ahead diversion - try to forget diversion - look at the sun diversion - look at the moon diversion - I'm on the run diversion - trapped in a room

h) You stole my heart

You showed me gold but I grew too old I got too greedy and you got too speedy

You stole my heart
you've torn it apart
my love lies bleeding
my time is exceeding

I played charade but I was too late you saw me falling and you heard me calling

and you've torn it apart

i) Trapped (instrumental)

j) Breaking out (instrumental)

k) The lonely road

We're looking back and we look ahead we watch the sky and we watch ourselves

I try to walk and I try to sit I close my eyes and I look inside

The lonely road is all there's left blue eyes, honesty and theft
unturned
and the candles have all been burned

We lie and cheat and betray ourselves deny defeat and everyone else

We trust the lies we don't want the truth the time will fly and rob off the youth

We know the road but we don't wanna go we drag away there's no point in to stay

The lack of light and the lack of love we start to fight oh my Lord above

l) Living on the edge (reprise)

m) Into the Abyss

I watch in silence as we fight among ourselves we're living on the edge

Into the abyss we're falling slowly just like in a dream
slowly and never to be seen

I watch the violence on the screen every single night

I never really saw it as a problem I mean, people have their ways I never wanted to interfere with anyone how could I know it'll turn out this way
