

Moonlight Serenade

Walking down the lane again moon is shining bright tonight sensing traces in the dark where we use to sit and kiss

Moonlight serenade
a silent song to the love we lost
Moonlight serenade
lamenting memories of the past

Talking to myself again talking bout the love we shared precious love evaporate no one ever seem to care

Moonlight serenade
a silent song to the love we lost
Moonlight serenade
lamenting memories of the past

walking in the rays tonight only with the memories fading to oblivion

Moonlight serenade
a silent song to the love we lost
Moonlight serenade
lamenting memories of the past

Moonlight serenade
a silent song to the love we lost
Moonlight serenade
lamenting memories of the past
