a. No news

I don't want no news
I turn the TV off
they all sing the blues and smoke some heavy stuff

The world feels heavy tonight
the wars, noise unrest everywhere
I hide away in my mind
in my secret realm,
just light and sound

I'm diving down now the music fills my head the journey goes too far I don't know what you said

The world feels heavy tonight
the wars, noise unrest everywhere
in my secret realm,
just light and sound

b. Disillusioned

This is just a circus you're the sprechstallmeister You're calling in the artists they do the tricks as planned

I'm disillusioned
I've lost my trust in you
I thought you're on my side and now I've lost my pride

I'm entering the stage the crowd roar expectantly you nail me to your cross draw out your shiny whip

I'm disillusioned
I've lost my trust in you
and now I've lost my pride

I'm disillusioned
I've lost my trust in you

c. Night vision (instrumental)

d. Fade away

I'm glancing over my shoulder and things are getting distant now fade away, fade away, fade away

The dreams I dreamt are passing and start to wane out in my mind waning out, waning out, waning out

The mountains are getting smaller and the buildings are not so tall not so tall, not so tall, not so tall

The stars are getting blurry and the sun is in a hurry rushing by, rushing by, rushing by

e. Safe spot

I want to stay in my safe spot
all the time
until the stars promise not to fall apart

How can I trust the fate of my future life when all I believe in is a filthy lie

until I hear the bells calling me back home

I walk on the thin ice of my consciousness the morning won't allow me to skate away

f. Living on an island

I'm living on an island I'm connected to the stars above

I'm living on an island now
no TV and no internet
can take my time and hold me down
no worries and no troubles

I got no line to the world I'm looking up at the sky at night

I'm living on an island now

g. Time blur (instrumental)

h. It doesn't matter

What you once were and what you once said what you once did and what you once hid

It doesn't matter
no one cares
the importance
has gone away

What you once thought and what you once fought look at the sun and you start to run

no one cares

i. No news (reprise)

I sit in darkness the TV is turned off what did I get here alone here with my fear
