

No Sweet Ballad

I know this is getting so ugly
I know this is getting so weird You came to me like a sweet honey pie you said goodbye without turning your head

This is no sweet ballad
I can see in you eyes
you're still despising me

tell me why should we go on pretending all is ok

Now you're defriending me without a word now you're disowning me all along How could I be so mistaken about you how could I be so wrong about us

This is no sweet ballad
I can see in you eyes
you're still despising me

tell me why should we go on
pretending all is ok

I don't want to see you no more
I know you'll never come to my door Why can't I still stop thinking about you why can't I still stop feeling so blue

This is no sweet ballad
I can see in you eyes

tell me why should we go on
pretending all is ok
