- a. Panic Room

- c. Safe spot

We sit and we stare
we even try to smile it was always there we didn't care about it then

I recognize it when it is gone I try to get back to where I was it vanishes when I look away I try to create another spot

I hide in my panic room
I shut off the outside world
I want to feel safe and calm but fear has started the alarm

Safe spot, it's all I got safe spot, I long for it safe spot, it's in my mind
I thought it was all mine

Yet a year has gone twas drenched in fear and fun we hop and we run and throw ourselves on the floor

I try to buy me some time again it won't be easy since it's a lie I thought it was my only friend now I'm not so sure anymore

I hide in my panic room
I shut off the outside world

I thought it was all mine

- b. The outside world (instrumental)

d. Hypocrite

I try to be good and say the right things and when I feel righteous it's almost like puking

Hypocrite, that's what I am hypocrite, I feel so safe hypocrite, the ice is thin hypocrite, I hate to be

I want to fit in and do the right things and when I feel sufficient

Hypocrite, that's what I am

Hypocrite, that's what we are hypocrite, we feel so safe
hypocrite, we hate to be

e. Look away (instrumental)

f. Waiting for good times

I lay me down and weep
I don't mind the weather I close my eyes to sleep hoping things get better

Waiting for good times
hope my powers rise
waiting for the sun
shining in my eyes

I feel disconnected just like a stray balloon I feel so rejected
I think I'm gonna swoon

Waiting for good times

g. Sunshine (instrumental)

h. Don't be silly

We sit in silence
I want to break the ice
I hear your breathing
I think I'm on the run

Don't be silly, it won't help don't be pretty, it won't last don't be willing, it don't sell don't be clever, just shut your mouth

We walk in silence
I want to dance away
I want to feel good
You never understood

mouth

i. Panic Room (reprise)

Now I sit and sulk
it's coming in, in bulks I think I should scream but it ain't gonna help

I hide in my panic room

I hide in my panic room

j. Help wanted (instrumental)
