

Secret Gardens

Light and shadows
are playing on the wall shades of blue and green creatures you've never seen

Secret gardens
secret beings
you will never
leave us again

Hear the bells now they're calling you back home watch the light fade out behind the rugged stone

Secret gardens
secret beings
you will never
leave us again

a refuge for my soul
live forever and never you'll grow old

Secret gardens
secret beings
you will never
leave us again

secret beings
you will never
leave us again
