a. Sleepers

We're sitting in a row looking at the screen
we're in the underworld it's a bad, sad dream

We're all sleepers
we're living in a world of our own
we're all sleepers
we might as well just be all alone

we're playing silly games each to his own world we're looking at the names we're not boys and girls

We're all sleepers
we're living in a world of our own
we're all sleepers
we might as well just be all alone

We're all sleepers
we're living in a world of our own
we're all sleepers

b. Behind the screen (instrumental)

c. Join me in my dream

Join me in my dream
the world's never what it seem
join me in my dream
let's play with the colored beams

Join me in my dream
the world outside is a fraud
join me in my dream
I'll make sure we won't get lost

Join me in my dream
we're traveling with fantasy
join me in my dream
you'll be what you wanna be

Join me in my dream
the world outside is a fraud
join me in my dream
I'll make sure we won't get lost

d. Riding on the wind of thoughts

Riding on the wind of thoughts I'll be here, I'll be there I'll be everywhere, you know let it flow, let it blow

Dreaming with your fantasy changing place, changing phase changing everything you know let it move, let it groove

Riding and dreaming

e. Never going back

I am so unreal
in a world of my own
I will meet you there you will know my name

Sitting on a bench
you will walk in the street being in a house
you will walk the stairs

Flying in the air
I will sit in my chair lying on a bed till the sky turns red

Wonder where you've been turn my GPS on staring at the screen as the world sucks me in

I'm never going back again
You'll never have to ask again
I'm never going back again
You'll find me on your screen

f. Sleepers (reprise)

The life is easy here building me a home
I'm never gonna leave
I won't be alone

We're all sleepers

We're all sleepers

g. Outside (instrumental)
