

Someday

Illusions on my way I hardly recognize them disillusion has come to stay my subconscious mate

Someday I'll find a way
someday they always say

I'm riding along the border of the nightbirds shadowland but something's out of order I don't quite understand

Someday I'll find a way
someday they always say
Someday I'll find a way
someday they always say

Someday I will fly away
Someday I'll be on my way
Someday I will fly away
Someday I'll be on my way

Once I made my goal so clear there's no doubt in sight now it all have dissappeared
I can't tell wrong from right

Someday I'll find a way
someday they always say
Someday I'll find a way
someday they always say
