

Speak your mind

You've been hiding
you've been sliding
cause your ideas
are causing fears

They're debating you've been waiting to show your views
to show the news

Speak your mind
and don't be kind
scream and shout
just let it out

You're afraid now
much on stake now
will I belong?
I must be strong

You think they care
you think they dare
to tell the truth
they cling to you

Speak your mind
and don't be kind
scream and shout
just let it out

Trust the message
find your essence
and turn the page
before it's too late

You're believing
you're retrieving
the turning point
that make us joined

Speak your mind
and don't be kind
just let it out
