

Streams of Life
(Ace of Cups)

A hand's holding out a cup of love and joy, I can't believe it a dove's flying henceforth now with a host of life, I can't resist it

Streams of life flowing over now and it's raining down on the waters of my subconscious mind
lotus flowers blossoms bright

A brand new beginning to my life is shining, I love to be me abundance of power running through my body to soothe and heal me

Streams of life flowing over now
subconscious mind

Emotions will overflow and radiate, I love to feel it awaking of new awareness, spirit mind, I love to be it

Streams of life flowing over now
subconscious mind

subconscious mind
