

The Play

Is this the Kingdom come outside my door
is this the spirit of hope lying on the floor

Dreaming
Hoping Screaming
out loud now

We're all sinking deeper
into the play
we're all hoping we can escape someday

Playing
Scheming
Fighting
off the fiend

Do you see visions of the future bright
have you been watching life fade into the night

We have been playing squid for far too long
when will we ever quit
it doesn't seem to end

We're all sinking deeper
into the play
we're all hoping we can
escape someday

We're all sinking deeper
into the play
we're all hoping we can
escape someday

Every day's a fight to prove we are right glancing at the goal
we never get to reach

We're all sinking deeper
into the play
we're all hoping we can
escape someday

Do what you are told we know we are sold
we can never stop
we go on till we drop
