

The Promised Land

(incl. Milk and honey)

a. The promised land

You move like a shadow when the sun's crossing the sky I lie in the meadow and I'm wondering just why

We glance out as far as we can towards the promised land

I can't seem to hold it yet my fingers feels the pain I can't seem to grasp it but it lingers in my mind

we glance out as far as we can
our eyes only meets the sand

b. Milk and honey

Milk and honey
it's always sunny
milk and honey
it tastes so funny

Milk and honey
we play like bunnies
milk and honey
we look like dummies

We reach out every day we always look that way the window holds us back and keep us right on track

c. The promised land (reprise)

The beauty lies naked like the weather in the night we know we have faked it fascination came like light
