

The Summer's gone

- a. The summer's gone
- b. Refugee
- c. Silent rain (instrumental)

- d. Bus stop shelter
- e. Hail storm (instrumental)
- f. The summer's gone (reprise)

a. The summer's gone

Waiting for the dawn
waiting for the sun to rise longing for the heat longing for the rain to stop

Breathing in the air
trying to ignore despair smell the sense of doubt leaving all we hoped for out

The summer's gone
before it begun
the summer's gone
away for good

nowhere to run
nowhere to hide
just sit and watch
it all slip away

Watching you and me
watching out for love again we would take the plunge we would do it all again

keeping up the pace
we're joining in on the race once again we go
let the summer sunshine glow

The summer's gone
before it begun
the summer's gone
away for good

nowhere to run
nowhere to hide
just sit and watch
it all slip away

b. Refugee

Nowhere to run
nowhere to hide

I am a refugee now
I run and hide away
I only come out at night when the moon is shining so bright

Nowhere to go
how will it show

I am a refugee now
I run and hide away
I change my name everyday when the tail gets too hot to stay

Nowhere to run
nowhere to hide

I am a refugee now
I move from town to town
I look like a circus clown
I start anew, don't turn me down

Nowhere to go
how will it show

I am a refugee now
I screw up all the time no telling who reads the sign I'll do anything to walk the line

c. Silent rain (instrumental)

d. Bus stop shelter

Sitting in a bus stop shelter Waiting for the bus to come hope to get a glimpse of you but I know you'll drive in your car

I could take you out
anywhere you'd like to go
I could also drive you
to hell and back
If you'd just come over
to my bus stop shelter now I will take you on a ride
you'll never forget

Sitting in a bus stop shelter
Watching the all the summer adds dreams will warm my freezing feet but I know they flew yesterday

I could take you out
anywhere you'd like to go
I could also drive you
to hell and back
If you'd just come over
to my bus stop shelter now
I will take you on a ride
you'll never forget

e. Hail storm (instrumental)

f. The summer's gone (reprise)

Once again we sit
once again we lie and laugh hoping just a bit
hoping for a summer hit

Once again we crawl
once again we're on the prawl ignorance be good leave out what we understood

The summer's gone
before it begun
the summer's gone
away for good

nowhere to run
nowhere to hide
just sit and watch
it all slip away

The summer's gone
before it begun
the summer's gone
away for good

nowhere to run
nowhere to hide
just sit and watch
it all slip away