

Alienated

It's getting in my blood
I can't keep up the pace
it doesn't make no odds
I'm gonna loose this race

The endless days of work the lonely nights so cold I'm feeling like a jerk that does what he's been told

Alienated in a world
I use to know so well
I'm losing my marbles
and all my sanity

Do you know and do you care or do you see right through the cracks in the mirror where all our dreams have gone

I'm living on a lie a smile upon my face I'm wearing suit and tie it might give you a trace

I wanna say goodbye but all I do is crawl I wanna get up high but all I do is fall

Alienated in a world
I use to know so well
I'm losing my marbles
and all my sanity

to face the truth and see the fake and the fraud that we've lived on day by day
