- a. A summer day

- b. Playing rough

A summer day so far away
I wish I could hide and stay
The sky is blue and so are you
I wish I could run away

We're running up that hill we're running down again
it goes so fast
how can we last

It's a mean summer day
it's rough and beautiful

I follow after you
you seem to know what to do
I stumble and fall
brought to a halt

The narrow path,
the looking glass
I wish I could pass the test
How can we play,
I got astray
I wish I knew
all the rules

Playing rough
playing tough
I wanna stop
I had enough

It's a mean summer day
it's rough and beautiful
got to be so dutiful

playing tough
I wanna stop
I had enough

- c. Fainting (instrumental)

d. Fever dreams

Looking through the hazy air how I hope to see you there you cannot believe I'm fine lying in the bright sunshine

Feeling dizzy in my head lying straight out on a bed reaching out for nurse and worse
this is just my universe

Fever dreams I got no clue
fever dreams surround me now
fever dreams I look at you
fever dreams just like a cow

Hoped it'd be a wonderland hoped that I could understand wanted to go back and see if there's something I should know

Now it's fading in my mind gonna leave it all behind didn't want to let it slip I will have to get a grip

e. Walking in the Light

Walking in the light
there's no one here in sight

Walking in the light

f. Waking

Waking, I must be waking
I must be waking up again
watching, I must be watching
I must be watching you again

Listening, I must be listening
I must be listening to the sound
Feeling, I must be feeling
I must be feeling much alive

Waking, I must be waking

Listening, I must be listening

g. A summer day (reprise)

The way back home,
a dread to walk
how to fly
The day is gone
like every one
start again

It's a mean summer day

h. Evening dew (instrumental)
