a. Daniel

Daniel's traveling on a plane tonight
I can see the red taillight heading for Babylon Daniel's dreaming dreams and visions tonight he can see chimeras and nine headed monsters

Daniel is so far away
he's a hostage of Babylon
he dream his dreams now and then he walks the streets of angels

Daniel's playing in the lions den the music's high and the disco light is flashing Daniel's waking up on the dancing floor the dream still lingers on before his weary eyes

Daniel is so far away
he dream his dreams now and then
he walks the streets of angels

b. Orphans of Babylon

Playing with gold in the gutter throwing with dirt at each other longing for father and mother longing for air, so don't you smother

Orphans of Babylon
they have to carry on
orphans of Babylon
we are the chosen ones

Flying the kites in the garden satisfying the devils bargain spending some time at the market looking for magic shiny objects

they have to carry on
orphans of Babylon

Here comes the high priestess entering like a queen she helps the helpless ones with a jar of Vaseline

Here comes the hierophant doing the best he can to show his mystery
and to activate your fear

c. Nebuchadnezzar (instrumental)

d. Babylon

You said
I could, I could leave any time
I wanted to

You lied
I know, I know
you need me more than I needed you

Babylon
Babylon
you hold me
in captivity

I want to leave, to leave
this menagerie
behind my back

I don't believe, believe in you and the things you want to do

Babylon
Babylon
you hold me
in captivity

Babylon
Babylon
you hold me
in captivity

Babylon
Babylon
your tower's crumb
ling to the ground

Babylon
Babylon
we run away
in confusion

e. Marduk (instrumental)

f. Babylon Airport

People come and people go some are carried away
this is where you come and show you've not been led astray

Babylon airport
we fly away with fire
Babylon airport
destiny's desire

Oxygen masks are required and pin pricks now and then vestal virgins in the mist conducts the ceremony

Babylon airport

Off we go into the air
goodbye to all despair
hello my cozy chair

g. Daniel (reprise)

Visions of the beasts from sea stand clear the nightclub is closing and they turn out the lights Everlasting kingdom closes for tonight be back tomorrow and we'll serve you with all our might
