

Can't kill the beast

I'm in a world of mess
and yet so far away
I live in fear and darkness
I'm fighting for my right to stay

I cross the border to an undiscovered land I may have read the order too but do I really understand?

Can't kill the beast
my spells won't do right
can't kill the beast
I'm loosing the fight

I loot a chip of bone and when I got enough I'll make up you a clone, and I hope you'll heal and buff me up

Can't kill the beast
my spells won't do right
can't kill the beast
I'm loosing the fight

Can't kill the beast
and it won't go away
it's having a feast
and it's planning to stay

It came to me one night
it was a piece of cake but now I'm reaching out for light at the bottom of a dark big lake

And so we end up here
I'd like to believe you're near, but I know you're still so far away

Can't kill the beast
my spells won't do right
can't kill the beast
I'm loosing the fight

Can't kill the beast
and it won't go away
