

Boundaries

We're always seeking we're always pushing
and always trying to find out some more

What lies outside these
boundaries
we may never know
what lies within these
sentences
you may never know

The space is endless
and so our pursue
our eyes are greedy
and so is our mind

boundaries
we may never know
what lies within these
sentences
you may never know

boundaries
we may never know
what lies within these
sentences
you may never know

Will we be satisfied with what we know now will we be gratified
and stop our search

boundaries
we may never know
what lies within these
sentences
you may never know

boundaries
we may never know
what lies within these
sentences
you may never know
