

Civilized man

I eat the meat
and I drink the wine
I feel the heat
and I watch you shine
I smile at your face and I act polite
I follow your trace,
but the fear's inside

I keep it in places so dark
you won't recognize it's there

I'm a civilized man
and I do what I can cause I know how to do it polite...
I apologize and smile
but it cares me a tile
and still I feel like beating you up!

I watch TV
and I'm really bored
why can't you see,
that I feel ignored
I knock on wood,
I believe in fate
I think I should try suppress the hate

I keep it in places so dark
you won't recognize it's there

I'm a civilized man
and I do what I can
cause I know how to do it polite...
I apologize and smile
but it cares me a tile
and still I feel like beating you up!

Tema, solo, m.m.

I'm a civilized man
and I do what I can
cause I know how to do it polite...
I apologize and smile
but it cares me a tile
and still I feel like beating you up!

I drive my car
into the city lights
I'm not a star,
but I love the nights
I want to sleep
on a bed of roses
I dream of sheep
...here the story closes

I keep it in places so dark
you won't recognize it's there

I'm a civilized man
and I do what I can
cause I know how to do it polite...
I apologize and smile
but it cares me a tile
and still I feel like beating you up!

I'm a civilized man
and I do what I can
cause I know how to do it polite...
I apologize and smile
but it cares me a tile
and still I feel like beating you up!
