

Crocodiles

The space of innocence shines with emptiness
where's our common sense who'd be the space princess

I saw the crocodiles today
they don't bite they say
it was a lie
a filthy lie

A million tears they say we'll still be forsaken in a silent way
I still miss what's been taken

a filthy lie

They lie on the beach
they're moving with ease
we're running away
we don't know what to say

They hide under water they're lurking about we're brought to the slaughter screaming won't help us now

The sea of black and blue lures with promises
how can it be true
without the gloominess

a filthy lie

a filthy lie

a filthy lie
a filthy lie

a filthy lie
a filthy lie
