

Daydream

Sitting in the silence watching a raindrop fall perception is changing the view is rearranging

Daydream
I was in the middle of a sweet daydream
daydream
I'm living all my life in a
sweet daydream

Lying in a meadow watching the clouds go by the shapes are ever changing my mind is rearranging

Daydream
I was in the middle of a
sweet daydream
daydream
I'm living all my life in a
sweet daydream

Daydream
don't you ever wake me from my
sweet daydream
daydream
won't you follow me into my
sweet daydream

Passing through a doorway watching the people there the world is ever changing my world is rearranging

Daydream
I was in the middle of a
sweet daydream
daydream
I'm living all my life in a
sweet daydream

Daydream
don't you ever wake me from my
sweet daydream
daydream
won't you follow me into my
sweet daydream
