

Dreams and desires

I carry my treasure, light and bold
I use my own measure, lo and behold
I take in oceans of love and joy
I thank the heaven, I'm a happy boy

Dreams and desires captured my soul
I want to learn the secret art
I will not lose the sight of my goal
My journey's taking a perfect start

My thoughts are feather light, spirit mind intuitive wisdom, I will find I climb the mountain peak so high the view of splendor makes me sigh

Dreams and desires captured my soul
I want to learn the secret art
I will not lose the sight of my goal
My journey's taking a perfect start

I hold the rose of the palace of earth the force of life is giving birth to thoughts of promise and fulfilment the world's a gift from heaven sent

Dreams and desires captured my soul
I want to learn the secret art
I will not lose the sight of my goal
My journey's taking a perfect start

Dreams and desires captured my soul
I want to learn the secret art
I will not lose the sight of my goal
My journey's taking a perfect start
