

Follow the light

I left the house for good I hide myself in the woods my eyes are wide open now I watch as you take a bow

I follow the light
my new world's ahead
I let go of the past
looking behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil

The butterflies and birds they talk without using words my ears are wide open now I surely hear the grass grow

I follow the light
my new world's ahead
I let go of the past
looking behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil

The velvet darkness glow I watch the universe flow my mind is wide open now I'm taking in the cosmic show

I follow the light
my new world's ahead
I let go of the past
looking behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil

I follow the light
my new world's ahead
I let go of the past
looking behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil
behind the veil
