

Fools in disguise

We're talking all night the moon is shining bright we getting so wise
we're fools in disguise

Fools in disguise
the moon's on a rise
fools in disguise
we're winning the prize

We're walking all day
we don't know where to go we go all the way
nothing's left unsaid

Fools in disguise
the moon's on a rise
fools in disguise
we're winning the prize

Sleeping in a trench
holding the answer
try not to forget
we're fading away

Our shadows are bleak
I'm feeling so weak
I once was so sleek
now I've lost myself

We sit on a bench and glancing just right out we used up the words
I'm screaming it out

Fools in disguise
the moon's on a rise
fools in disguise
we're winning the prize

Fools in disguise
the moon's on a rise
fools in disguise
we're paying the price
