

Frozen tears

Listen closely to your own heartbeat
watch the towers and see them change at night

Whisper in my ear
the words I want to hear
see before your eyes
a trail of frozen tears

Watch the sign of the times, they stand in line turning sweet to sour
they come to devour

Whisper in my ear
the words I want to hear
see before your eyes
a trail of frozen tears

Close your eyes, see the book of your dreams
colors go flashing
through the air in beams

Whisper in my ear
the words I want to hear
see before your eyes
a trail of frozen tears

the words I want to hear
see before your eyes
a trail of frozen tears
