

Gethsemane

- a. Gethsemane
- b. The oily way (instrumental)
- c. The night goes on
- d. Night dust I (instrumental)

a. Gethsemane

I'm lurking through your garden now
I sit beneath the olive tree
I wonder if I'm in your mind
I wonder if you still are blind

Gethsemane, the garden of pain
Gethsemane, I pray all in vain

I'm left alone to my own fate every one has fallen asleep
I wonder who will kiss me now I'm waiting just to be betrayed

Gethsemane, the garden of pain
Gethsemane, I pray all in vain
Gethsemane, the garden of pain
Gethsemane, I know it's a shame

b. The oily way (instrumental)

- e. How could you
- f. Night dust II (instrumental)
- f. Gethsemane (reprise)

c. The night goes on

They all came to see me they all came to play it cool expecting a wonder they all think that I'm a fool

The night goes on
and you had your way
I wait for dawn
I know it's too late

We leave now in silence
we all know what lies ahead
the trials and tribulations before the last word is said

The night goes on
and you had your way
I wait for dawn
I know it's too late

d. Night dust I (instrumental)

e. How could you

How could I ever win this game how can you just turn your head why couldn't we just feel the same why does my feet feel like lead

How could you deceive me
why don't you believe me

Why should I drink your poison who am I gonna save now why would I be your toy-son I'd rather be a holy cow

How could you deceive me
why don't you believe me
How could you deceive me
why don't you believe me

f. Night dust II (instrumental)

g. Gethsemane (reprise)

The dream that never was to be the life I didn't dare to hold I know you have forsaken me
I know you've turned your head away

Gethsemane, the garden of pain
Gethsemane, I pray all in vain
Gethsemane, the garden of pain
Gethsemane, I know it's a shame
