

Growing old together

They once made a vow that they would be together their love was so strong it seemed to last forever

Growing old together
how sweet it may sound
growing old together
how nice now we're bound

The years passing by the words been long forgotten the love fades away and life has gone too rotten

Growing old together
how sweet it may sound
growing old together
how nice now we're bound

Everyday you got the chance tie your shoes and join the dance fly away won't help you out you are left with a sense of doubt

We can't understand how love has gone to waste the fruit that we got has left us with a bitter taste

Growing old together
how nice now we're bound

growing old together
