

In My Mind

The picture shows the danger the picture shows the angel the picture shows the joy so suddenly it went away

In my mind
I can see where you went

In my mind
seriously
the dream has gone

Repeat the same old story repeat the same old glory repeating all the way and we forgot how it's ending

In my mind
I can see where you went

In my mind
seriously
the dream has gone

We fight the lie
with transparency
we hide the truth
behind the curtain

We stroll the way to the market square
we sit on benches
staring in the air

Believing in the science believing in the silence believe that we can rule the world with just one hand tied

In my mind
I can see where you went

In my mind
seriously
the dream has gone

In my mind
I can see where you went

In my mind
seriously
the dream has gone
