

Leaving for good

I'm walking down the street with a suitcase in my hand I lost the battle, lost my belief but the memories still lingers on

Leaving for good
I'm never going back again
Leaving for good
there's nothing for me here to do

I wanted to survive when you held my life in your hand I had to make my way and break free
but the memories still lingers on

Leaving for good
I'm never going back again
Leaving for good
there's nothing for me here to do

I turn my head and start to walk
I'm not looking back again I walk towards the sunset ahead
but the memories still lingers on

Leaving for good
I'm never going back again
Leaving for good
there's nothing for me here to do

Leaving for good
I'm never going back again
Leaving for good
there's nothing for me here to do
