

Life on Earth

I'm extraterrestrial
I'm looking for some company no matter just where you look you don't know where we may be

The mirror will show you how deception work with dark and light just hold back your breath and watch reflections of souls in your eyes

The life on Earth
the senseless gain
we seek in vain
is filled with endless pain

The life on Earth
the senseless gain
we seek in vain
is filled with endless pain

I give to you
a different view
you won't believe
the stories I can tell

I give to you
a different view
the stories I can tell

The loss of your memory is coming back to you so soon you realize just who you are you're now leaving your safe cocoon is filled with endless pain

The life on Earth
the senseless gain
we seek in vain

The life on Earth
the senseless gain
we seek in vain
is filled with endless pain

I give to you
a different view
the stories I can tell

I give to you
a different view
