

Living a lie

Nobody told me you were a liar
nobody told me how much it would hurt how could you be so mean how could I be so green I know now you only will take

I walk the lonely streets in search of love
I pray to the lord in the sky above now I'm alone and blue I can only think of you I know you will never come back

I'm living a lie
I try not to cry
no use for the truth
I got nothing to lose

I'm living a lie
I try not to cry
no use for the truth
I got nothing to lose

So you're here in my mind again
playing hide and seek my friend
I can see you, now I can't our little game will never end

Nobody told me you were a liar
nobody told me how much it would hurt
you're like a drug to me I wanna run and flee
I know I can never be free

I'm living a lie
I try not to cry
no use for the truth
I got nothing to lose

I'm living a lie
I try not to cry
no use for the truth

So you're here in my mind again
playing hide and seek my friend
our little game will never end
