

Only in dreams

Now we're all alone and now the time is right to make a move across the room
I can see your eyes they're shining

Moving out of sight
I can see you're drifting away Glowing in the dark
I can see you're eyes they're fading

Now and only now is stretched out in eternity we are only dots lightning up the sky of consciousness

Black and red and white
are the colors of my desires double cross my eyes
I can feel and touch your fire

Only in dreams I can be with you, my love only in dreams I can live the life I want Only in dreams I can show my love for you only in dreams we don't have to be apart

double cross my eyes
I can feel and touch your fire

Only in dreams I can be with you, my love
only in dreams I can live the life I want
Only in dreams I can show my love for you
only in dreams we don't have to be apart

Only in dreams I can be with you, my love
only in dreams I can live the life I want Only in dreams I can fly so high above only in dreams I don't have to hide away
