a. Bit by bit

b. I can feel no pain

Pieces of yesterday
they all seems so far away
pieces of yesterday
they fade as we move ahead

I can feel no pain
there's so much to gain it lies on the ground waiting just to be found

Bit by bit now
I take a bite
bit by bit now
from the future

I can feel no pain
was it all in vain
sounds are fading out leaving me with my doubt

Pieces of yesterday
they all live on in my mind
pieces of yesterday
I can only watch as the fade

Bit by bit now
I take a bite
bit by bit now
from the future

c. Across the Rainbow

We fly across the rainbow we disappear in the light of the blue sky I long to come home now to sit in the cozy chair taking in the view

Looking out now
across the rainbow
see the birds flying
disappear in the sky

The golden light shines on me and keep me safe and sound like birds in the sky
I long to come home now
to sit the cozy chair
taking in the view

see the birds flying
disappear in the sky

d. Bit by bit (reprise)

Pieces of yesterday
sometimes I will cross my path
Pieces of yesterday
they rise and shake their ugly head

Bit by bit now
I take a bite
bit by bit now
from the future

Bit by bit now
I take a bite

e. Pieces of yesterday (instrumental)
